

Curwood Festival Design Winners Announced

The Curwood Festival held two contests for the design of 2010 festival artwork. The first contest was for the design to be used on the Festival buttons. The second contest was for the design to be used on Festival prints and post cards.

Chairman, Carrie Miculka announced the winners of this year's contest during the Festival's Full Council meeting in April.

Festival Button Design

Madelyn Walters, a student at Corunna High School, is this year's winner of the 2010 Curwood Festival Button contest for her design using the theme "Fantasy & Fiction". Madelyn's design will be showcased on the 2010 Curwood Festival Souvenir Button. For her talent, Madelyn received a $100 check, a commemorative plaque of her design and will have the opportunity to participate in the Heritage Parade on Saturday, June 5, beginning at 2:00 p.m.

Festival Print Design

The winner of the 2010 Festival Print/Post Card design is Jordinn Crawford. She is also a student at Corunna High School.

Jordinn also received a $100 check, commemorative plaque and will have the opportunity to participate in the Heritage Parade.

Both winners are students of Mrs. Shannon Dasen who also received a $50 check for art supplies for her classroom.

Buttons and post cards go on sale starting May 17, 2010, and can be purchased at the Curwood office located in the Matthews Building at 308 W. Main in Owosso. New this year ... button holders will receive "free admittance" to the grounds of the Steam Railroading Institute during festival weekend.

Only 200 of the buttons and 100 of the post cards have been printed by contest sponsor, We Print Everything, making them true collector's item. Cost of the button and post card is $2 each. If you are a true collector and are looking for past year's buttons, be sure to visit the Curwood Festival office.
