FROM THE PRESIDENT

Welcome to Curwood Country!

Welcome to the 38th annual Curwood Festival. This four day celebration is held in honor of Owosso's own James Oliver Curwood. He was an avid conservationist, and author, who became one of the wealthiest writers in his time. Along with his wonderful stories, he left the city and its residents, a beautiful castle that he built on the riverbank to use as his writing studio. Please take the time to visit the castle, and check out "Oliver"...he would love to see you!

Rediscover Curwood is this years theme! There is much to discover, not only in the festival area, but all around Curwood Country as well. Visit the Steam Railroading Institute, home of the Pere Marquette 1225 Steam Locomotive; bike on the Rails to Trails from Owosso to Ionia; walk or run the river walkway from Owosso to Corunna; shop the many downtown area businesses and so much more. There is so much to discover in the Owosso area!

The many festival volunteers invite you to experience a weekend full of food, music, entertainment and family events. The Board of Directors, the Committee Volunteers, and the City of Owosso Administration, hope that you feel a warm welcome to the festival and the city of Owosso. Thank you for joining us in Curwood Country!
